MEET OUR INTERNATIONAL STUDENT AMBASSADORS!

Echo, originally from Taiwan (ROC), is a graduate student in the MBA program. She is passionate about cooking and eating and loves that Rutgers-Camden is just one train stop away from Philadelphia!

Parth is an undergraduate student studying biology (pre-med). He hails from India and enjoys playing squash. His best advice for students? Get involved—make new friends, learn new things, visit new places and experience American life!

Azka is an undergraduate engineering student from Pakistan. She loves photography and encourages students to challenge themselves and live every day to the fullest. Azka describes Rutgers-Camden as her “second home!”
