GREEK LIFE? WHAT IS THAT?

Fraternity & Sorority Life, also known as Greek Life, at Rutgers University-Camden:

Fraternities and sororities are about friendship, scholarship, community service and leadership. Close to one million undergraduate students across the country are fraternity or sorority members. At Rutgers-Camden, there are close to 300 men and women in the fraternity and sorority community, which consists of 10+ diverse organizations!

A fraternity or sorority can help personalize your experience at college by offering a scholastic support system; by exposing students to potential career tracks through educational programming and alumni discussions; by offering the chance to give back to the community through philanthropy and community service projects; and by creating close friendships with men and women who will cheer you on when the times are tough.

Our campus provides a wide range of academic, social, leadership and community service activities for you as a member of a fraternity or sorority!

CULTURE CORNER: BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Black History Month is a national celebration of the achievements of Black Americans and a time of recognizing the central role of African Americans in US history. Since 1976 the month of February has been designated as Black History Month. February was selected because it coincided with the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln and Frederick Douglass, notable supporters of human rights. It is celebrated worldwide, including in Canada and the United Kingdom.

BIRTHDAYS Dean Atkins (2/1), Gulilat Ta (2/1), Ji Yoon (2/11), Johanna (2/17), Ramitha (2/21), Yun (2/22), Nastassia (2/25), Asma (2/28)
